
a rep[illegible] never got an answer. I got the address om Victo[illegible], so I assume that the address is genuine and t my l[illegible]ved somewhere. If the Jimpson that I wrote to was t conne[illegible] with the assassination, I cannot understand why he should l to respond and simply tell me so. I used university stationary the hope of investing my correspondence with an air or respectability.
I doubt whether he would think me a crank.I have simply given up Simpson, for I do not know what else to do. Perhaps if you know hone in the area you can direct him to find out whether the lead genuine or not. Here is the address that I used:
